

Information you need to succeed

- daily job postings
- news
- technology
- employment skills & where to get help
- housing & shelters
- transportation
- identification documents
- re-entry organizations
- community agencies
- faith-based help
- education opportunities
- life skills
- benefits
- family & friends
- veteran-specific info

return rebuild

reimagine

 remerg.com

remerg.com

remerg is a social cause company with a mission to help people succeed & reduce recidivism remerg.com is for anyone involved in the criminal justice system

- easy to use
- current
- verified
- friendly
- helpful
- educational

Visit www.remerng.com

Who's behind remerg.com?

The company was founded by Carol Peebles, who was the project director and primary author of the first and second editions of Getting On After Getting Out: A Re-entry Guide for Colorado. Carol also founded Colorado Voting Project and Can I Vote?, a statewide voter education effort to reach people disenfranchised by a criminal record. Carol recently wrote Interviewing & Hiring Applicants with a Criminal Record: A Guide for Colorado's Employers.

Free & easy to use remerg.com is only available online, but you don't have to be good with computers to use it!

Places with Free Computers

public libraries to find the closest library call 211, M-F, 8am-5pm (or google the name of your city + public library)

workforce centers

see the remerg.com resource list for all locations

re-entry organizations

see the remerg.com resource list; most have computer labs for clients community organizations

see the remerg.com resource list; some have computer labs for clients community re-entry

940 Broadway, Denver; has computer lab for people on parole

Our IT Director was a small business owner and website developer/coder before he was incarcerated in the Colorado Department of Corrections. He was released in early 2015 and is currently on parole.

Visit www.remurg.com

Q: Is remurg.com part of the DOC or probation?

A: No, remurg.com is provided by Remurg, a private company. The website is supported by businesses and sponsors who pay for spots on the web pages. For this reason, we ask you to support the businesses and organizations on the remurg.com advertising banners.

Q: Why create a company with a mission to reduce recidivism?

A: When people go back to prison, or if they're on probation and go to prison, it costs everyone: them, their families, their communities, and the state.

From her experience researching and writing the GO guides, Carol realized how hard it can be to find current re-entry resource information. To bring the explanation full circle, we believe help with re-entry reduces recidivism.

Q: How can I contact remurg.com if I know of a resource that isn't on the website or there's incorrect information on the website?

A: Use the Contact Us button on remurg.com to send us an email. We're glad to get your help and feedback.