August 11, 2020

The Executive Committee authorizes the Joint Senate and House Education Committee to hold two meetings during the 2020 legislative interim to receive briefings regarding the start of the 2020-21 school year, in-person and remote school attendance, and school safety planning efforts related to the COVID-19 pandemic. These meetings will be held in September and December 2020.

Notwithstanding the policy of the Executive Committee, dated July 18, 2017, regarding remote participation during committee meetings held during the legislative interim, members of the Joint Education Committee may participate in the meetings electronically. Members of the committee who attend the meetings, either electronically or in person, may receive per diem. Members of the committee who attend the meetings in person may receive travel expense reimbursement.
