Transportation Assistance and More

Denver Human Services, RTD, and DRMAC invite Denver Metro residents to visit Colorado PEAK (Colorado.gov/PEAK) to apply for LiVE, RTD's new income based fare discount program. LiVE provides a 40% fare discount for RTD's fixed route bus/rail services to individuals and families (ages 20-64) with limited incomes living in the RTD service area.

For 2019, this means household income per family members as follows: $23,107 (1), $31,284 (2), $39,461 (3), $47,638 (4). For example, a local RTD fare valued at $3.00 would be discounted to $1.80. Visit Colorado PEAK or RTD's website (www.rtd-denver.com/LiVE.shtml) for more information.

RTD also offers other discounts for older adults, youth, and people with disabilities. Older adults (age 65+), people with disabilities, and Medicare recipients receive a 50% fare discount. Youth (ages 6-19) receive a 70% fare discount; children ages 5 and younger ride free with a paying adult (<http://rtd-denver.com/DiscountFares.shtm>).

In addition to applying for transportation assistance, visiting the Colorado PEAK website offers opportunities to apply for other benefits such as medical, food, cash, and early childhood assistance programs. Denver residents can receive personalized assistance applying for RTD's LiVE program or other PEAK benefits by going to their local Denver Human Services office. Residents of other metro area counties can receive help by visiting their county's human services department.

A Note About Medicaid Transportation:

Individuals who receive Medicaid as their primary medical insurance can contact IntelliRide* and provide their Medicaid state ID to find out if they are eligible for transportation benefits (see pages 7-8). If eligible, free transportation may be provided to Medicaid covered medical and behavioral health appointments.

Individuals who are enrolled in one of the following Medicaid Home and Community Based Services waiver programs should contact their Single Entry Point or Community Center Board case manager to find out more about transportation services and providers: Supported Living Services waiver, Elderly Blind and Disabled waiver, Brain Injury Waiver, Spinal Cord Injury Waiver, and Community Mental Health Supports waiver. Visit www.colorado.gov and search for single entry point agencies or community center boards.

Assistance with navigating Medicaid transportation resources is also available through local Regional Accountability Entities (RAEs). The RAE for Adams, Arapahoe, Denver, Douglas, and Elbert Counties is Colorado Access 303-386-0037; Denver residents: 303-368-0038. Boulder, Broomfield, Clear Creek, Gilpin, and Jefferson Counties are served by Colorado Community Health Alliance, 303-256-1717.

* Gilpin and Clear Creek residents are not served by IntelliRide and should contact their County Department of Human Services (Gilpin, see page 5. Clear Creek, call 303-679-2365).
